On Tuesday, April 28, 2009, the Los Angeles Headquarters Association (LAHQ) will host its 48th annual awards luncheon, honoring the city's best and brightest community leaders from 2008. The reception and exhibit display will begin at 10:30 a.m. at the Dorothy Chandler Pavilion of The Music Center Performing Arts Center of Los Angeles County, with the luncheon and awards program beginning at 12 p.m. This year's honorees include: Tim Leiweke, president of Anschutz Entertainment Group, who will receive the Spirit of Los Angeles Award; WET Design, who will receive the Outstanding Company Headquartered in Los Angeles Award; Father Greg Boyle who will receive the Humanitarian Award; and Autry National Center who will receive the Community Award.

"Our annual awards luncheon has been a time-honored tradition since LAHQ was founded in 1965," said Linda Sybrandt, president of LAHQ. "Despite current economic conditions, there are a lot of positive things happening in our community right now. We are thrilled to come together this year and celebrate the outstanding achievements, institutions and individuals who continue to make the city of Los Angeles a better place to live and work."

Tickets cost $175, and $165 for members. For more information about the awards luncheon, please contact Ben Wirick at (213) 291-8317 or email info@laheadquarters.com.
