A CONVERSATION WITH COUNCILMEMBER KEVIN DE LEÓN

In the course of a remarkable career, Kevin de León has been an educator, activist, community organizer, and the first Latino leader of the California State Senate in 130 years. For the last decade, Kevin represented Senate District 24, which overlaps a significant portion of Los Angeles. Prior to joining the Los Angeles City Council, Kevin was a professor, senior analyst, and distinguished policymaker in-residence at the UCLA Luskin School of Public Affairs; as well as a Distinguished Fellow for Climate, Environmental Justice and Health with the USC Schwarzenegger Institute at the University of Southern California.

With the arrival of a new administration in Washington D.C., and an accompanying ambitious agenda, join us for a conversation with the Councilmember to discuss the opportunities and hurdles the city of Los Angeles will have to be mindful of.

INTRODUCTORY REMARKS: Jessica Lall, President & CEO of the Central City Association (CCA) of Los Angeles - Recovery and the Future of Downtown LA.
